

Fountain Hills Leadership Institute 2007/08 Series

The Leadership Institute is now accepting applications

The Leadership Institute is designed to provide participants opportunities to explore extraordinary management and leadership practices through forums, renowned speakers and field trips. "Everyone in business, especially entrepreneurs, needs to take time to work "on" their business not just "in" their business if they want to be remarkable. This program is designed to provide that opportunity in a riveting way" says Beverly Belury, partner in John Hersey International.

This year's tentative schedule includes:

Ian Percy - Ian is the author of Going Deep, The 7 Secrets to a Life of Meaning, The 11 Commandments for an Enthusiastic Team and soon to be released As You Think, It Will Be.

John Hersey of John Hersey International - John is the author of Finding and Keeping Great Leaders - CEO's Explain How Corporate Culture Shapes Potential Leaders and Creating Contagious Leadership.

Ken McElroy, real estate investor and property management advisor, is author of The ABCs of Real Estate Investing. He will share his off the charts winning philosophy in business and life.

Field Trip: SRP is the largest provider of electricity and supplier of water to the greater Phoenix metropolitan area. Part of our executive briefing will be a helicopter tour of their system.

Field Trip: TASER International is the industry leader in providing life saving equipment to the law enforcement, military and personal protection markets. Our executive briefing will focus on the leadership style which propels and supports this explosive growth.

The Leadership Institute is limited to 12 motivated participants each year. Participants should be prepared to commit to attending all five sessions, reading assigned materials and meeting with other participants to prepare for key meetings.

If you are interested in this extraordinary experience please compose a short description of why you feel attending the Leadership Institute is important to you and email it to Diane@fountainhillschamber.com Applications due Monday, October 1, 2007.

The Leadership Institute was a homerun...The speakers were fantastic and we had a team that was committed to attending all of the events and pre-meetings.

Dwight Johnson

What I took away from our conversations with super coach Steve Chandler had an immediate positive impact on my work day. By being more focused on the human element and empowering others, the team accomplished more.

Jay Schlum